SEO & User Experience (UX) Insights

- Website uses brand name and long-tail keywords effectively (e.g., “Maine Coon kittens for sale near Atlanta, British Shorthair kittens for sale Atlanta…”).
- However, meta-data review not yet shown: ensure that title tags, meta descriptions and structured data (schema) are in place for better search visibility.

- Navigation: simple menu (About, Available, Videos, Contact) — good for user flow.
- Recommendation: Add a dedicated “Gallery” and “Testimonials” section to keep visitors longer, reduce bounce rate.

- Ensure fast loading times and mobile responsiveness for better user experience and SEO ranking.

Strategic Recommendations & Next Steps

Create a Content Calendar – Publish monthly blog posts about care tips, breed comparisons, kitten preparation.

Enhance Trust & Credibility – Display certifications, parent pedigrees, health tests. Encourage customer reviews and share “Happy Homes” pictures.

Improve Conversion Path – Add clear CTA buttons: “Reserve Now”, “Contact for Upcoming Litter”, “Join Waiting List”.

Optimize for Local Search – Ensure Google My Business listing for Alpharetta GA, use local keywords (“Atlanta kitten breeder”, “Georgia Ragdoll kittens”).

Use Social Media & Video – Leverage YouTube (already referenced) and Instagram to show kitten videos, behind-the-scenes, live Q&A.

Monitor & Measure – Use Google Analytics to track traffic sources, user behaviour, conversion rate. Adjust based on data.
